When the user clicks a button, they're taken to a secondary page where that div is hidden-top. I'd like for the div to be displayed when they first load the page. I'm not sure how to word the question, but basically I'd like the div to appear like it's in the secondary page. Here's the code for the div: Stuff Stuff Stuff

Thanks in advance. A: in your css use the following `#skills{ position:absolute; bottom:0; width:960px; }` in your html Stuff Stuff then when you want the `#skills` to show add `.hidden{ display:none; }`

Q: When using Perl 5, what are the differences between my and our? I'm still very new to Perl, but I'm thinking of
