Recently, Thanos has been revealed to be a villain, but his motivation has been quite the enigma. Unlike other villains, however, Thanos's goal seems to be nothing other than killing off half the population of our galaxy, and it's all because he's a dick. He's a dick because he just wants to take people's stuff. But even though Thanos is the most extreme example of a phenomenon we see in comics all the time, and even though he has more than a little Hulk on him, there is a specific reason that he's the best character for this story: Thanos is evil. He's a bully. And he's usually pretty good at it. That said, it's the events that would lead him to that final, climactic act—and the decision to break that

The induction motor is a single-output, three-phase AC induction motor with a synchronous driving, split-phase, and single-turn winding. The transfer function for a single-voltage sinusoidal wave (either AC or DC) on the three-phase AC current is $I' 3e33713323$
